

Everyone wants to look like a star

Life & Style finds out which celeb body parts are being requested by those going under the knife

SURGERY UPDATE

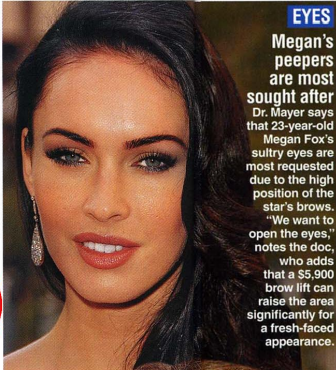

BUTT AND LEGS

Fergie's bottom tops the list
Beverly Hills plastic surgeon to the stars Dr. Toby Mayer says that Fergie, 34, had the most requested curves in the doc's survey of Hollywood's hottest looks. "Her body is very proportional, which is appealing," Dr. Mayer says, adding that liposuction of the legs ($4,100 per area) and fat injections to the butt ($3,900) can help achieve a Fergalicious bod.

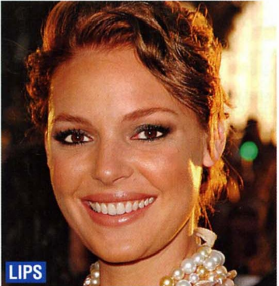

BREASTS

Eva's chest is a desired size
Dr. Michael Chossek, a plastic surgeon in South Carolina, says he hears a lot of requests for 35-year-old Eva Mendes' full but natural-looking cleavage. The likely C-cup can be achieved with breast augmentation (about $6,500).

EYES

Megan's peepers are most sought after
Dr. Mayer says that 23-year-old Megan Fox's sultry eyes are most requested due to the high position of the star's brows. "We want to open the eyes," notes the doc, who adds that a $5,900 brow lift can raise the area significantly for a fresh-faced appearance.

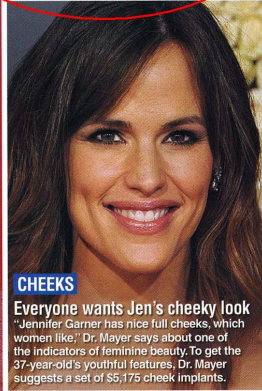

LIPS

Katherine's pout is a perfect fit
Those who want a puckered-up kisser request 31-year-old Katherine Heigl's lips. Dr. Mayer says a $635 pop of Juvederm filler helps make the lips look more youthful, while a $4,500 set of solid-silicone SurgiSil implants gives megavolume!

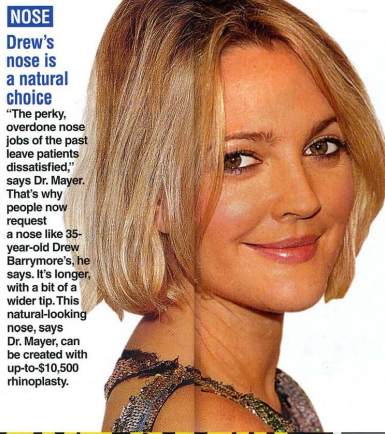

CHIN

Halle has enviable bone structure
A well-defined Halle Berry, 43, makes Dr. Mayer's most-requested list for her strong chin and jawline, "a hallmark of the most beautiful actresses," says the doc. Halle's look is achievable, notes Dr. Mayer, with a chin implant and facial contouring, which together run about $3,675.

CHEEKS

Everyone wants Jen's cheeky look
"Jennifer Garner has nice full cheeks, which women like," Dr. Mayer says about one of the indicators of feminine beauty. To get the 37-year-old's youthful features, Dr. Mayer suggests a set of $5,175 cheek implants.

NOSE

Drew's nose is a natural choice
"The perky, overdone nose jobs of the past leave patients dissatisfied," says Dr. Mayer. That's why people now request a nose like 35-year-old Drew Barrymore's, he says. It's longer, with a bit of a wider tip. This natural-looking nose, says Dr. Mayer, can be created with up-to-$10,500 rhinoplasty.

Jessica wannabe — going too far?

SHE'S ALREADY TRIED OUT JESSICA'S LOOK
To satisfy her boyfriend, Xiaoqing wore a wig similar to Jessica's blond do.

A Shanghai woman known as Xiaoqing is taking a celebrity obsession too far. In an attempt to get back a boyfriend obsessed with 28-year-old Jessica Alba, the 21-year-old says she's planning to go under the knife for a complete makeover — one that New Jersey-based plastic surgeon Dr. Brian S. Glatt says would require a roughly $30,000 overhaul, including rhinoplasty, a reverse brow lift, eyelid surgery, a chin implant and lip injections. "I'm a psychologically weak person," says Xiaoqing. But it may be more than that, says clinical psychologist Leslie Seppini, citing the possibility of obsessive-compulsive disorder and body dysmorphic disorder: "There are obviously some issues of trying to disassociate herself from who she really is."
